Director's Report...

John Holland - Rogers, Arkansas

I am happy to report your board met last week in Valdosta, Ga. and was able to cover the challenges associated with all organizations. AHS is in a sound financial position and our membership is holding its own. Our new journal and journal editor have been getting rave reviews and we have had to limit our advertising requests to keep our present format. This is an excellent problem to have.

Your board appreciates your willingness to change our Region 13 By-Laws to limit the liability of our local members. While this problem has not yet raised its ugly head, there remains the distinct possibility that it could under our current By-Laws.

The AHS home page on the web now reflects photos of all 2008 awards and honors. This web site is constantly changing and if you have not checked it out lately you might be surprised how much valuable information it contains. As an example, the Photography and Video Awards deadline has been changed to Dec. 1, 2008 to accommodate any late entries.

The National Convention for 2009 is to be held by the Sunbelt Daylily Chapter in Orlando, Florida on May 21-23. Because there appears to be an unusual amount of interest in these Florida gardens and hybridizers, I would suggest that you register as soon as possible. This meeting could sell out early and does have a limit.

Our scientific studies committee has moved that the word Polytepal be replaced with Polymerous. This is to correct an inappropriate botanical term as it applies to the daylily.

I apologize for making this column so boring, but I needed to include all this raw data and, unfortunately, it cannot be made for interesting reading. I will try to do better next time.

Enjoy your winter rest.

John Holland

Regional President's Letter.....

Joe Goudeau - Central, Louisiana

Happy Holidays,

Well as I finish my first term in office I would like to thank all of you who support AHS, Region 13 and, of course, your local clubs. The generosity and hard work of our members never cease to amaze me and I pray that you continue to support your Region. I would like to take this time to thank the clubs who have sponsored the Region with your donations, supplementing your members to attend Regional Meetings, and especially the clubs who have hosted Regional Meetings. I look forward to other clubs stepping up and taking a turn. The next open date is 2012, plenty of time to prepare.

As we reflect on another bloom season, we cannot help but look longingly for the next scape. We anxiously await the arrival of those beautiful color catalogues that make us long for the coming of spring. It seems we scurry through our lives looking ahead to what is next. When growing up, we could not wait for the next birthday, the next holiday, the next summer vacation. In our careers, we are always looking toward the next weekend, vacation or retirement. Concerning our flowers, it is the next bloom season, the next seedling crop, the next morning to see what new is blooming. I encourage you to take the opportunity to slow down and "Smell the Roses". Please take a moment to call or visit a daylily friend, especially one who may have experienced a loss or an illness. It will mean so much to hear from you.

Thanks to all who voted in this year's Popularity Poll. Congratulations to Clarence Crochet for winning for the sixth straight year, with Hemerocallis, 'King Kahuna'. H. 'King Kahuna' also won in Region 12, Florida. There were a number of first time selections of Region 13 hybridizers both past and present represented in the poll. Congratulations to you all. Region 13 had 33% participation this year, which is almost a ten percent increase over last year. Thanks to our tabulators, Ken Begnaud and Bob Stassen. I know it is a daunting undertaking trying to keep up, especially when you consider all the different medias in which we are allowed to vote. Winners of this year's drawing for a Goudeau introduction are Mattie Broussard and Carrie Roberts. Congratulations.

There are many fall and winter events that support regions or local clubs to lift us out of the doldrums of winter. We have the Fall Symposium hosted by the Cenla Daylily Society in Alexandria, and the Mid-Winter Symposium in Nashville. The Winter Symposium moved from Cleveland to Cincinnati, and of course Lilyhiemer is in Camp Hill, PA. Many Regions and clubs have events which are listed on the AHS website. I cannot think of a better way to network with people who have like interests and make new friends.

You may have observed there is color in this issue. It was voted at the regional meeting in Baton Rouge, that there would only be one color issue as a cost saving measure.

I approached the hybridizers of region 13 to see if they would be interested in continuing the hybridizer's issue. Five Region 13 hybridizers paid to show some of their offerings and therefore gave us some beautiful flowers to look at, promote their programs, and best of all not cost the region a single penny. I encourage all commercial growers to advertise to promote your efforts as well as help the region generate a high quality publication.

Cenla is diligently putting together the 2009 regional meeting. They have scheduled Dan Trimmer to be the speaker and have a line up of gardens that is sure to please the senses. Meeting dates are May 29-30, 2009. I look forward to seeing all of you there.

I would like to thank The Arkansas State Club for donating $500 to the region and an additional $500 toward the promotion of the 2011 National Convention being hosted by the Baton Rouge Daylily Society. The Arkansas State Club also donated $1000 to AHS for the William E. Monroe Fund. Lastly, the Arkansas State Club voted to sponsor an award in honor of Ralph and Pauline Henry. The Ralph and Pauline Henry Clump Award will be a regional award to be voted for and awarded at the annual Regional Meeting. There will be a $100 cash award for the winner as well as a plaque that they will be allowed to display until the next year's regional meeting. Details of criteria for this award are being worked out.

I would like all of you to make plans to attend the 2011 National Convention being held in Baton Rouge. The Baton Rouge Daylily Society is busily working to make this the best convention ever. Quite an undertaking considering the conventions seem to be getting bigger and better every year. I invite you to get involved. We are looking for people to work the registration tables, bus captains, garden angels, auction plants, table sale plants, goodie bag items, and people who are willing to contribute countless hours for little recognition and no pay. I know, "it sounds fun, sign me up!" This is an opportunity for Region 13 to showcase our famous "Southern Hospitality" and I encourage you to get involved.

I had a club president ask, "Where was this year's prize for signing up the most new AHS members"? Well I guess I was negligent in my give aways this year. I apologize. I will donate a 2009 Goudeau collection to the Region 13 club, having 25 members or more, who has the highest percentage of AHS members by October 15, 2009. It will be up to the club presidents to submit their membership rosters and show how many are current AHS members.

Lastly, we still have room for Garden and Exhibition Judges. I will give a free Goudeau introduction to anyone who obtains or renews this designation.

As always, may all your endings be "Happily Ever After" ©

Joe

Hello fellow Region 13 members; hope all is well and you weathered the hurricanes safely? It has been a real crazy and busy summer. Now the cool weather is starting to come down and make being outside much more enjoyable. Looks and feels like we will have an early winter.

During these coming months when you are cooped up in the house with no flowers to look at, think about the other side of daylilies: JUDGING. I invite all of you to become judges, be it garden judge or exhibition judge. I have been a daylily judge in both categories for several years now and have really enjoyed the experience. As a judge, you will be seeing our number one perennial from several different view points. While taking the clinics you will meet and see other AHS members enjoying daylilies, not as just a pretty face, but the total package. Judges are often asked to travel to different regions to judge flowers they do not normally see blooming in their area. The best part is you get to meet and make new friends along the way. So if you think you would like to become a judge go to www.daylilies.org and look up judging to see if this would be to your liking.

I know there are several of you out there who would be good judges and, yes, AHS and Region 13 always need judges.

Happy Gardening,

Ken Begnaud, RPD Louisiana

Northeast Arkansas Daylily Society

The NEADS is a new club, established for the daylily lovers of the northeast Arkansas area, and we are currently getting to know each other on our online group site:

http://groups.yahoo.com/group/nea_daylilysociety/ (that is nea_daylilysociety)

Club founder, Gail Raspberry, recently attended the Arkansas State Daylily Society's Fall Meeting in Conway, AR, where a proposal was presented requesting funding assistance for the club. Funds are to be utilized for printed material and advertising of the first meeting, as well as travel assistance for presenters. The proposal, in keeping with the mission of the ASDS to aid in the establishment of local clubs, was approved. The club graciously accepted funding in the amount of $500.00. In addition, at the meeting, Raspberry was inducted onto the board of ASDS, as acting President of the NEADS club.

The first NEADS meeting was held November 15, at the Comfort Inn, in Jonesboro, AR. RP Joe Goudeau was the guest speaker. As always Joe was very entertaining, and his hybridizing program and introductions are quite admirable. Every member in attendance received a gift plant.

During his visit, Goudeau inspected the garden of Mrs. Raspberry and approved it to become the first AHS Display Garden in Northeast Arkansas!

Southeast Louisiana Daylily Society

SELDS is an exciting and ever-growing club in the New Orleans Area. SELDS invites anyone interested in having fun and talking daylilies to attend one of their meetings. There are usually door prizes, speakers, and each member who attends is given one raffle ticket, which gives them the opportunity to win a newer daylily introduction. Additional tickets can be purchased at the meeting. Meetings are held at the Garden Study Center located at the Botanical Garden in City Park, New Orleans. Meetings start at 9:30.

The 2009 meeting dates are:

January 10, March 21, and September 12.

A bus trip to visit gardens in Mississippi is scheduled for May 30-31.

Baton Rouge Daylily Society

Baton Rouge Daylily Society met on October 11, at the Ryan's located on Coursey Boulevard in Baton Rouge. Election of officers was held and the Officers and Executive Board for 2009 – 2010 are:

President - Joe Goudeau
Secretary - Ginger Goudeau

Vice President - Chuck Ingram
Treasurer - Pat Comeaux

Tour Chairman - Jimmy Terrio

Executive Board Members are: Claire Fontenot, Ed Herringshaw, Annette Pressler (past president), Norman Pressler, Muriel Walker, and Lucy Wells

The plant sale held at the New Orleans Botanical Garden was a huge success. With the help of the Southeast Louisiana Daylily Society, over 2000 fans were sold and many contacts made. The booth won two ribbons: one for the best educational exhibit and the other for design and creativity. The BRDS annual Christmas party is scheduled for December 6, at 11:00 at the garden of Joe and Ginger Goudeau. The highlight of the event is the Christmas Ornament swap, which always generates friendly competition. All are welcome, so bring your ornament and a scrumptious goodie.

BRDS Membership dues are due. Dues are $10.00 per person and every member, new and old, receives a new 2008 or 2009 Goudeau introduction for joining and attending the first business meeting of 2009. The first meeting of 2009 will be held at The Holiday Inn Select on Constitution Ave, on February 28. A table sale will begin at 10:00 with the meeting starting at 10:30. Jimmy Terrio will be showing 2008 seedlings and introductions.

This year has been a year of growth in the Ark-La-Tex Club. Our club has increased from 97 members to 139 members this year.

At the April meeting Joe Goudeau was our speaker and we had 72 members present. In August, Ken Begnaud was our speaker. We were running a contest to see who would draw the most members at their meeting. It was a tie.

We invite all daylily and gardening enthusiasts to our annual Christmas party, December 21, starting at 1:00. The meeting will be held at the Barnwell Center, Shreveport Louisiana.

Advertising & Deadlines.....

Hello folks, it's me again as your editor. A newsletter of this quality can be quite expensive to produce. I feel, as members of AHS, the journal and regional newsletters are one of the most important benefits for becoming and remaining members of the national organization.

The hybridizers whose introductions and seedlings are displayed in the center of this issue all paid to show a sampling of their fabulous work. I hope to continue to provide color in each issue, but it will depend on having advertisers.

I would like to encourage all hybridizers and commercial nurseries to advertise in the newsletter each issue. Not only does it make for a beautiful publication, but it helps promote your hard work. A copy of the regional newsletter goes to every AHS member in Region13 as well as all AHS and Regional officers.

Below are the advertising costs for the Region 13 newsletter:

$150.00 for a full page, color advertisement
(I must have at least four advertisers to produce one color page)

$85.00 for a full page black and white advertisement

$55.00 for a ½ page black and white advertisement

$45.00 for a ¼ page black and white advertisement

Submittal Deadlines for 2009 are:

Spring Issue	February 15
Summer Issue	July 1
Fall/Winter Issue	October 15

I encourage every club to send information on meeting dates, locations and times, speakers, programs and anything else that may generate interest and encourage members to attend and join. Please update your contact information on the club page as officers and publicity chairs change.

Your continued support is appreciated,
Joe

😊Welcome New Members😊

The Cenla Daylily Society held their annual Fall Symposium November 8. The attendance was phenomenal. Speaker, Frank Smith, of Smith Daylilies offered a $200 introduction for any non - AHS member who joined AHS. Twenty-seven people joined on the spot, eighteen of which are now members of Region 13. Some of these new members have been in daylilies for many years and others were just getting started. An appreciative "THANK YOU" goes out to Frank Smith!
